The Court held a status conference with the parties on October 17, 2023. As discussed at that conference, it is HEREBY ORDERED:

- The Court will hold a status conference with the parties on October 31, 2023 at 12:00 PM.
- Trial will be held beginning on November 28, 2023. This case is trial ready, and the parties are on notice that they must be prepared to try the case at that time. The Court will allow no more than three days for this trial.

Any contested, competing proposals in the verdict forms and requests to charge shall be listed adjacent to one another, with the objection to the other side's proposal noted. Proposed requests to charge shall be formatted on a separate page for each charge with any competing charge indicated, and include authority that supports the requested instruction. Only case-specific charges should be included in the proposed requests to charge (i.e., the parties should not include general charges applicable in all criminal cases, such as an explanation of the burden of proof).
